ABOUT CAAC

The 2011 Clinical AAC (CAAC) Conference is the fifth annual forum created specifically for clinicians and researchers engaged in the study and clinical management of people who use augmentative and alternative communication. CAAC offers interaction opportunities with leading researchers providing unique insights into clinical research. At CAAC, participants are required to present their original research and engage in comprehensive discussion with colleagues. To encourage a program conducive to the exchange of ideas, attendance will be limited to approximately 100 people. If you wish to attend, you should submit a summary of an original paper or poster. Author instructions are available at www.aac institute.org/CAAC.

Your hosts

The 2011 Conference Chair is Dr. Joe Reichle. Join us at the University of Minnesota in the welcoming Twin Cities of Minnesota. The CAAC Steering Committee members include: Lyle L. Lloyd, Chair, Ann R. Beck, Gilson Capilouto, Katya Hill, and Filip Loncke.

Registration will begin after authors have received acceptances for submitted research. To register for the conference, please go to www.aac institute.org/CAAC. Registration is limited to the authors of accepted proposals, and graduate students being mentored by authors. Students may attend a special Student Research Seminar hosted by Dr. Lloyd and program committee members.

CAAC is a free-standing independent event. Portions of the conference have been generously sponsored by AAC Institute. AAC Institute sponsors special Student Scientific Paper Awards. For more information go to www.aac institute.org/CAAC.
